Words and Music by Charlie Hall
From Charlie Hall "Porch and Alter"

Verse
D2 D2/C D2 D2/C
You are the core of my life, the crux of every statement
D2 D2/C G no 3rd/Bb C2 no 3rd
You surround me, I surround you too
D2 D2/C D2 D2/C
I am a satellite, hovering about who you are
D2 D2/C G no 3rd/Bb G/B
You're the sun; I'm the earth, rotating in your glow

Chorus
C2 G/B G no 3rd /Bb D2/A
Let your sovereign, providential hand lead me
C2 G/B G no 3rd/Bb D2
Let your sovereign, providential hand keep me

Verse2
D2 D2/C D2 D2/C
Who I am is in you, like someone immersed in the deep end of a
D2
water pool
D2/C Gno 3rd/Bb G/B
Inside of you I live and move and have my being

Bridge
Em G D Asus
You are more concerned with keeping me than exalting me
Em G D Asus
You would even use the pains of life to draw me close
C
If this be my hand my father, I receive it,
C D2
I am yours alone
