

Ransom

Lyrics by Charlie Hall,
Music Kendall Combes, Dustin Ragland, Brian Bergman, Quint Anderson

VS1

A (no 3rd)

At the dawn of human race, we hid away and lost sight of your face

D Dm

So much silence we could not behave, until the day that ransom came

CHO:

A (no3)

Em7

C

D

Oh the day that ransom came, You were the prophet with healing in your wings

A(no3)

G

Returning hearts of the children to the father

D

Returning life and sight to the sons and daughters

VS2

A (no 3rd)

We dreamed of peace while our hands were making weapons

We dreamed of freedom while we locked ourselves in prison

Our eyes were looking and our hearts were waiting

For the one with the keys to our changing

BRIDGE:

F

C

G

Come and shake our hearts awake
